

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, SANYA

Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group's first venture in Mainland China is now open.

Mandarin Oriental, Sanya is a 12 hectare peaceful retreat, situated in a secluded sandy cove, basking at the southernmost tip of China's only tropical island. The resort is set against a backdrop of the lush green slopes with swaying coconut trees and an offshore coral reefs that teem with marine life.

This low-rise resort is the only resort in Sanya to offer the exclusive privilege of 1.2 kilometres of private beach front offering the utmost in relaxation, seclusion and luxury.

Sanya of Hainan Island – “Forever Tropical Paradise”

Hainan is located at the southern end of China, and Sanya is its most popular holiday destination for both domestic and overseas travellers.

Sanya's natural beauty has gained an excellent reputation, and the island is widely known as the “Forever Tropical Paradise”. With the same latitude as Hawaii, the island enjoys a balmy tropical climate, year-round with warm sunny weather, clean fresh air, crystal clear water and sandy beaches.

Luxurious Arrivals

The arrival experience of Mandarin Oriental, Sanya will be truly memorable; starting with a luxurious transfer from the airport in the resort's exclusive limousine. Upon arrival, guests will be greeted with the resort's very own signature welcome refreshment, a tropical cactus-based concoction. Dedicated butlers will escort the guests to their rooms by buggy for check-in.

Exciting dining concepts

Guests can look forward to a wide variety of chic and innovative dining options at the resort's choice of four restaurants and five bars.

All of the resort's restaurants and bars are designed with views towards the open sea and al fresco dining.

The bars are created for different moods which evolve throughout the day; the MO Blues (Jazz bar) swings from energetic vibes to mellow sounds, the Sunset Bar can be romantic or funky.

A hideaway retreat, ideal for relaxation and rejuvenation

Whether guests are travelling for business or pleasure, there is always time for leisure at Mandarin Oriental, Sanya. The resort offers an endless variety of activities, both for those in search of an action packed holiday or for the guests who are looking for relaxation.

The resort is situated on a long private coral beach. For the snorkelling and diving enthusiast, a low tide coral reef heaving with marine life is located in the resort's cove.

Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group is famous for their award-winning spa philosophy.

Guests looking for a holistic approach to wellness are well catered for at Mandarin Oriental, Sanya. The 3,200 square metre Spa village offers extensive programmes of treatments and therapies customised to suit each guest's need.

Further leisure facilities include a well-equipped Recreation Centre for both the gym regulars and kids, as well as 3 outdoor swimming pools. For golf lovers, 3 world-class golf courses are just a short 15-25 minutes' drive away.

An inspiring banquet and meeting venue

The Coral Bay Ballroom is situated on one of the highest points of the resort. Five well-equipped stand alone conference rooms are nestled in elegantly landscaped tropical courtyard and the resort's beautiful beachfront and lush landscape also offer an enticing setting for al fresco function areas.
